The interest shall be payable on the above basis only if the depositor has died before the maturity of the deposit. If depositor has died after the maturity of deposit no interest will be payable beyond the date of maturity of the deposit.

(iv) if on request from claimant/s the bank agrees to split the amount of term deposit and issues two or more receipts individually in the names of the claimant/s, it shall not be construed as premature withdrawal of the term deposit for the purpose of paragraph 9 above, provided the period and aggregate amount of the deposit do not undergo any change.

(b) In the case of balances lying in current account standing in the name of a deceased individual depositor, interest shall be paid only from 1st May 1983 or the date of death of the depositor, whichever is later, till the date of repayment to the claimant/s at the rate of interest applicable to savings deposit as on the date of payment.
